

Chapter 1

In Carbondale, Illinois, people are walking into the First National Bank to deposit their checks, when suddenly a huge explosion is heard at the door.

“Knock, knock anyone there,” asked Titan as he walked into the broken door of the First National Bank. “Freeze,” said a security guard aiming his gun at him. “How about I beat you up instead,” said Titan as he punched the security guard into the vault he was guarding.

“You are so uncivilized,” said Captain Communist as he flew in. “Whatever, let’s just go grab whatever we need for this big plan of yours,” said Titan. “Alright,” said Captain Communist as he located the right vault.

“I’m bored, I’m going to get me some cash, real fast while you go do all that,” said Titan. “Fair enough,” said Captain Communist.

“As Titan walked around he noticed a huge amount of money. “Now there’s something, I need,” said Titan as he grabbed the money and ran out of the First National Bank.

Chapter 2

“Ha, Ha, Ha, all this money is mine,” laughed Titan as he stood in front of the First National Bank. “You’re funny,” said Captain Universe punching Titan in the face making him drop all the money, he just robbed.

“You’ll pay for that, you good for nothing hero,” snarled Titan as he tackled Captain Universe to the ground. “Whatever you say,” said Captain Universe as he dodged Titan’s attack and gave him an uppercut to the face.

“Uh,” said Titan as he started running away. “Not so fast,” said Captain Universe as he flew towards Titan. "I don't have time for this," snarled Titan as he smashed Captain Universe into a car.

Chapter 3

"Quick we got to get out of here," cried Titan as he ran back into the First National Bank. "What happened," asked Captain Communist?

"The Freedom Fighters are here," answered Titan. "Aw nuts," said Captain Communist as he grabbed something off a shelf.

"Alright let's go, meet the others," said Captain Communist as he flew out of the First National Bank.

"Not so fast," said Captain Universe who just got up after having a car smashed on him. "Sorry but we had better be going," said Captain Communist as he grabbed Titan and started flying off.

"You're not the only one who can fly," said

Captain Universe as he started to fly off behind Captain Communist. “Your right, but I’m better,” cackled Captain Communist.

Chapter 4

As Captain Universe was flying after the two super villains. Captain Communist threw Titan like a bowling ball at Captain Universe throwing him off course and into a few buildings.

As Captain Universe got up, he noticed that Captain Communist and Titan were gone. “Mind as well go back to Universal Labs and warn the others about those two,” thought Captain Universe.

When he got back to Universal Labs, the other Freedom Fighters were waiting for him. “There are two new super villains, we need to find them before they strike next,” said Captain Universe.

“Who,” asked the Bullet? “They call themselves Captain Communist and Titan,” answered Captain Universe. "Great, let's go teach those clowns a lesson," said Stargazer.

"No," said Captain Universe, "we need a lead," he continued. "So what are you proposing," asked Stargazer. "You and Cytic go check out the First National Bank in Carbondale, Illinois and see if you can find anything," ordered Captain Universe. "While the Bullet and I try to find Captain Communist and Titan," said Captain Universe. As everyone started to leave, Infinity Man asked Captain Universe "What about me." "You're staying here because we still don't know how the Archer took away your powers," said Captain Universe as he left. "What," grumbled Infinity Man.?

Chapter 5

As Cytic and Stargazer got to the First National Bank. Titan and another villain were waiting for the two heroes. "Hi, I'm Titan," said Titan as he ran at Stargazer and Cytic.

"Oh Titan, you forgot to introduce me, I'm the Brainteaser," said Brainteaser as he shot a mind blast at Stargazer. "Ah, my mind," screamed Stargazer as Titan pushed him and Cytic into a pole. "Two can play at that game," said Cytic as she delivered a mind blast at Brainteaser. "I got Brainteaser, you take Titan," said Cytic.

"Ok," said Stargazer as he took his guns out and started shooting Titan. "Oh, that tickles," laughed Titan shaking off the bullets.

"How about this," said Stargazer punching Titan in the face. "That's just annoying," said Titan catching Stargazer's fist then throwing him into a car.

"That the best you got," asked Stargazer as he landed on the car then rolled tripping Titan. "Ah," growled Titan, "That tears it, I'm done messing with you little man," continued Titan as he ran towards Stargazer. "Yes, you are," said Stargazer as he started shooting Titan. "You're going to get these hands," shouted Titan as he ran towards Stargazer. "Here's a quick lesson for you, be aware of your surroundings," said Stargazer as he rolled out of the way. Allowing Titan to run into an electric power grid. "Ooh la," said Titan as he fell to the ground.

Meanwhile across the street, Cytic is fighting Brainteaser. "You're strong, but not strong enough," said Brainteaser as he kicked Cytic in the face.

"Cute," said Cytic as she dodged the kick then punched Brainteaser in the stomach. "Let's settle this like telepaths," said Brainteaser as he shot a mind blast at Cytic. "Nice try," said Cytic as she protected her mind with a mind shield deflecting Brainteaser's mind blast onto him. "You'll pay for that you dingus," shouted Brainteaser.

"Say what," said Cytic as she did the final blow on Brainteaser. "You're good but not good enough," said Brainteaser as he clicked a button on his belt. "You see you got two choices to find this bomb that I planted in the First National Bank and save everyone in there or keep fighting me," laughed Brainteaser as he ran off.

"As Brainteaser started to escape Stargazer gave Brainteaser a concussion. "Quick we got to find that bomb," said Stargazer. "Not a problem," said Cytic as she read Brainteaser's mind. "You can do that," cried Stargazer. "The bomb is in vault 183," said Cytic ignoring Stargazer's comment. "Then let's go," said Stargazer as the two heroes ran into the First National Bank.

"You look over there, I'll start looking over here, and let me know when you find that bomb so I can diffuse it," said Stargazer. "No sweat," said Cytic as she grabbed the bomb. "Oh no there's only one minute left," screamed Cytic.

"Take a chill pill scream queen," said

Stargazer as he snatched the bomb then opened it cutting the blue wire. “DON’T CALL ME SCREAM QUEEN,” snapped Cytic. “Ok, let’s go check on our guests,” laughed Stargazer as he threw the deactivated bomb into a corner.

As the two heroes went outside, they both noticed that Titan and Brainteaser were gone.

Chapter 6

As the Bullet and Captain Universe were looking for Captain Communist and Titan in another part of Carbondale, Illinois. The Bullet said, “We’re looking for a needle in a haystack.”

“Your right, but the others haven’t responded yet,” said Captain Universe. As the two heroes were talking Captain Universe heard his phone ring. “Hello,” asked Captain Universe. “We intercepted Titan, and he has a friend,” said Stargazer.

"Great, that's all we need another supervillain running around," said Captain Universe. "Did you at least catch them," continued Captain Universe. "Yeah funny story, we caught them but they escaped," said a nervous Stargazer.

“Where did they go,” asked Captain Universe. “We don’t know, Titan and his new playmate, set a bomb, we had to defuse,” answered Stargazer.

“Alright, just stay at the First National Bank,” we’ll meet you there,” ordered Captain Universe. “Alright,” said Stargazer as they both got off the phone.

“I don’t think you’re meeting anyone,” cackled Captain Communist as he flew at Captain Universe tackling him into the ground. “Except for the ground of course,” continued Captain Communist.

“Hey you forgot about me,” said the Bullet giving Captain Communist a punch in the face. “Oh no, I didn’t, I want you to meet a friend of mine, his name is Speed Demon," said Captain Communist as he caught the Bullet's fist then threw him into a building.

"Hey, I want to beat the Bullet up," joked Speed Demon as he ran towards Captain Communist. "He's all yours," said Captain Communist as he started to beat down Captain Universe.

"Your toast," mocked Speed Demon as he ran towards the Bullet. "Could say the same about you man," said the Bullet tackling Speed Demon. "Whatever you say, slowpoke," said Speed Demon hitting his elbow in the Bullet's back.

"Ah," screamed the Bullet falling to the ground. "Now you're dead," said Speed Demon as he kicked the Bullet in the face.

"Yeah, they all say that at one point or another," said the Bullet dodging Speed Demon's kick then jumping back up and running Speed Demon into an upcoming car.

"That the best you can do," said Speed

Demon as he jumped on the car then jumped onto another upcoming car then punching the Bullet in the gut.

"Wow you really stink at the whole supervillain thing," said the Bullet as he blocked Speed Demon's punch then flipped him upside down into a trash can. "Guess I got to take the trash out," continued the Bullet.

"Are you sure you didn't mix the trash up," asked Speed Demon as he gave the Bullet a punch to the face. "Yeah, I'm sure," answered the Bullet as he rapidly punched Speed Demon in the stomach. "I don't feel so good," moaned Speed Demon as he started throwing up. "You're done," said the Bullet. "Fine party pooper," said Speed Demon as he fell down.

As the Bullet was fighting Speed Demon, Captain Universe was fighting Captain Communist. "You suck, you suck la, la, la," mocked Captain Communist as he kept punching Captain Universe over and over. "I know you do,” said Captain Universe as he caught Captain Communist’s fist then gave him an uppercut to the face. “Ah,” screamed Captain Communist as he flew into a skyscraper.

“Ow, that actually hurt,” groaned Captain Communist. “There’s more where that came from,” said Captain Universe as he flew at Captain Communist. “Funny I don’t believe you jabber mouth,” growled Captain Communist as he started flying away.

“If you’re stronger than me then why are you running,” asked Captain Universe.

“Because I got better things to do, buy Speed Demon,” said Captain Communist as he flew off. “Hey, wait don’t leave me,” screamed Speed Demon.

“Guess your friend, left you,” said Captain Universe as he landed. “I thought there was honor among villains,” asked the Bullet.

“Apparently not,” answered Captain Universe.

“Hey you know, I can hear you right,” shouted Speed Demon. "Yeah and you're coming with us," said Captain Universe. "Make me," said Speed Demon. "Ok," said Captain Universe as he grabbed Speed Demon by the leg and started flying off. "Ok, ok, I tap out, I'll go peacefully," screamed Speed Demon.

"Great let's go," said Captain Universe as he let Speed Demon go then flew off. "I have my eye on you," warned the Bullet as he grabbed Speed Demon and started running after Captain Universe. "Ok, ok," mumbled Speed Demon as he ran after the Bullet.

Chapter 7

As the Bullet, Captain Universe, and Speed Demon got back to the First National Bank. Stargazer and Cytic were waiting for them. "Who's this," asked Stargazer. "This is Speed Demon, Captain Communist left him," answered the Bullet. "Alright, Speed Demon where's your supervillain club going," demanded Stargazer.

"Why would I tell you that," scoffed Speed Demon. "Because if you don't things are going to get a little ugly," said Stargazer.

"Stargazer, you know you don't have to interrogate Speed Demon when I can just read his mind," interrupted Cytic as she stepped towards Speed Demon. "I was uh giving him a chance to confess," stuttered Stargazer.

"Alright you two knock it off we have to find Speed Demon's friends before they cause any more harm," said Captain Universe.

"On it," said Cytic as she started reading Speed Demon's mind. "Where are they," asked Captain Universe. "There in St. Louis," answered Cytic. "You stink," mumbled Speed Demon.

"Watch your mouth," said Stargazer looking straight at Speed Demon. "That's only two hours from here," said the Bullet. "Your right it must be a rendezvous point for them," said Captain Universe. "Then let's go," said

Cytic. "What about Speed Demon," asked the Bullet? "I can put him in a deep sleep," offered Cytic. "Alright, go ahead," said Captain Universe. "Or we can do it the old-fashioned way," interrupted Stargazer punching Speed Demon in the face knocking him out.

"Really," said Cytic. "What," said Stargazer? "Guys, we don't have time for this," said Captain Universe as he and the Bullet started to head to St. Louis.

Chapter 8

As the Freedom Fighters, made it to St. Louis. Everything was on fire. "What could've caused this trouble," asked the Bullet. "Don't know," said Captain Universe. "We did," said Captain Communist. "Who's we," asked Stargazer. "The Elite," answered Titan and Brainteaser. "So you all have a name for your supervillain club now," said Stargazer as he started to take his guns

“Freedom Fighters, take them down,” ordered Captain Universe. “You can try,” laughed the Elite. “Yeah well you guys aren’t the real Elite,” laughed Captain Communist. “Say what,” said Titan. “Yeah it was all a huge scheme, and you all were just my pawns,” cackled Captain Communist as red looking shadows covered him revealing that it was Klato. “Why you good for nothing,” started Titan. “Oh shut up already,” snarled Klato choking Titan, then giving him a chokeslam. “What about you Brainteaser any objections,” continued Klato.

“Uh no,” stuttered Brainteaser. “GREAT NOW SCRAM UNLESS YOU WANT TO MEET THE SAME FATE AS TITAN,” roared Klato. “Yes sir,” said Brainteaser running away as fast as he could. “Now Freedom Fighters meet the real Elite,” said Klato.

Chapter 9

As the Freedom Fighters were about to fight Klato. They heard a "Clang, Clang, and Clang." "What is that," said the Bullet.

"That's the true Elite," screeched Klato as a giant robot came out of an alleyway. "Elite destroy the Freedom Fighters," said Klato.

"Destroy Freedom Fighters," said Elite as the robot started to walk towards the Freedom Fighters.

"Stargazer, provide me some cover fire," ordered Captain Universe as he flew at Elite.

"Sure thing," said Stargazer as he started shooting Elite. "Bullet try tripping him," said Captain Universe. "Got it," said the Bullet as he grabbed an electric cable that was knocked out of place and started running around Elite. "I am Bulletproof," said Elite as the robot kicked the Bullet.

"But you're still going to fall," said Captain Universe pushing Elite. "Nice try human," said Elite absorbing Captain Universe's blow then punching him into a skyscraper.

"That thing is learning," observed Cytic.

"Let's see if he learns from this," said Stargazer as he stopped shooting and grabbed a rocket and strapped it onto his gun. "Where'd you get that from," asked Cytic.

"From my arsenal," said Stargazer as he shot the rocket at Elite. "Systems damaged," observed Elite.

"You were saying," asked Stargazer. "Look," said Cytic as Elite's self-repairing system kicked in.

"Oh come on," grumbled Stargazer. "We need to mix things up," said the Bullet as he ran towards the Freedom Fighters. "Any ideas," asked Stargazer. "How about a huge explosion," continued Stargazer?

"I got a better idea," said Cytic, when we saw Klato I noticed he had a remote, maybe that can shut down that robot or something."

"Worth a shot," said the Bullet. "What about Elite," asked Stargazer? "I'll keep him distracted,” said Captain Universe. As Captain Universe flew off to confront Elite, the other Freedom Fighters went to fight Klato.

Chapter 10

“Give us the remote Klato,” commanded the Bullet. “What remote,” cackled Klato, “Oh this one,” mocked Klato as he showed the remote to the Freedom Fighters.

“Your choice,” said the Bullet as he started punching Klato in the back. “Thanks, for the back massage terd,” said Klato kicking the Bullet.

“Would you like some pain in your ribs with that,” asked Cytic as she punched Klato in the ribs. “Sorry gasbag, but your punches are pitiful,” snarled Klato slapping Cytic in the face.

“That was just the beginning,” said Stargazer who just joined the fight. “Nah it more like ended,” snapped Klato slapping Stargazer aside.

“You’ll never stop me, Elite will decimate St. Louis and then the world,” continued Klato.

“That’s what you think,” said the Bullet as he swiped Klato’s remote out of his hand.

“What,” said Klato.

“Here let me clarify things for you,” said Stargazer punching Klato in the face.

“You’ll never get away with this Freedom Fighters,” snarled Klato pushing Stargazer away then retreating into a portal he made.

Meanwhile a few blocks away Captain Universe is fighting Elite. “That all you got rust bucket,” said Captain Universe as he fought Elite.

“Puny human do not underestimate me,” said Elite kicking Captain Universe in the ribs then throwing him down to street level.

“Captain Universe, we have the remote,” said the Bullet.

“Then shut that tin-can down,” snapped Captain Universe. Just as Elite was about to step on him, the robot began to shut down then fall to the ground. "Talk about timing," joked Cytic. "Yeah," said Captain Universe. "When we get back to Universal Labs, I'm taking a nap," he continued.

"Agreed," said Stargazer, my back is hurting. "Boo hoo hoo, I'm Stargazer, I have back problems," laughed Cytic "Ha, Ha very funny," said Stargazer as the team left St., Louis, to go back to Universal Labs.
